

Busy Moms Your grandmother

College students

Women who live alone

Teenage daughters

Your granddaughter

Shoppers

Restaurant goers

Women's Sense of Awareness Interactive Workshop

Saturday, June 15 * 1:00 - 3:30 p.m.
White Rock Hills Library Auditorium
9150 Ferguson Road

Runners

Dog walkers

Seniors

Uber riders

Your next door neighbor

Presenter: Deborah Freeman

Deborah Freeman is a retired Dallas County Sheriff's Department Detention Officer, with over 25 years experience working with detainees and individuals incarcerated for various crimes in the State of Texas. During her tenure as a Detention Officer, she gained unique experiences and insight as to why criminals target certain individuals, when and how certain crimes are acted out, and how women can reduce the chance of becoming a victim.

Deborah was featured in documentaries, "Prison Women" on National Geographic channel, "Prison Women Compilation: Texas Hold Em" on Netflix and "Americas Hardest Prisons Dallas County Documentary" on YouTube

Outcomes:

Learn techniques with friends and neighbors in an interactive, fun workshop that will empower and educate YOU on becoming more vigilant and conscientious when it comes to personal safety.

Sign Up

Cost:
$ 5 FRI members
$10 nonmembers

Register:

<https://www.fergusonroad.org/event/womens-sense-of-awareness-workshop/>
phone: (214) 324-5116

